

Stichera on "Lord, I Call"

Triodion - Second Monday (Sunday Evening)

Tone 4
Sticheron 1

Kievan Chant
arr. from B. Ledkovsky

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

Grant compunction, estrangement from evil, and perfect dis - ci - pline to me, who am now drowned in the pas - sions of the flesh and sep - a - rated from You, in utter lack of hope, my God, the King of all! Save me, Your prod - i - gal son, by the bounty of Your good - - - - ness, // O Jesus, the Almighty, the Sav - ior of our — souls!

Sticheron 2

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

When Moses the wonder-worker was pu - ri - fied by fast - ing, he be-held the Be-lov - ed One. There-fore, emulate him, my hum-ble soul!

Hasten to be purified of evils on the day of ab - sti - nence, that the Lord may bestow for-give - - - ness on you, and that you may be-hold Him, // for He is the Almighty, the good Lord, and the Lov - er of man - - - kind!

Tone 6
Sticheron 3

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

Let us begin the second week of the fast, O broth - ers, fulfilling it with rejoicing, day by day, making a fiery chariot for ourselves, like Elijah the Tish - - - bite, out of the great cardi - nal virt - ues,

elevating our minds by subduing our pas - sions, arming ourselves with pu - - - ri - ty, // to chase away and van - quish the En - e - my!
