[all-compassionate . . .]

all - com - pas - sion - ate Lord: "May the light of Your countenance be marked as a sign up - on us! Ex - alt the horn of Your Orthodox peo - ple by the Exal - ta - tion of Your pre - cious Cross, // O Christ - of man - y mer - cies!"

Sticheron 2

The Tree of True Life was planted in the Place of the Skull and up-on it You, the eternal King, have worked salvation in the midst of the earth. Ex - alt - ed today, it sanctifies the ends of the world, and the church of the Resurrection celebrates its ded - i - ca - tion. An - gels in [heaven rejoice,] heav - en re - joice, and men up - on earth are glad, cry - ing a - loud with David and say - ing: "Exalt the Lord our God and wor - ship at His foot - stool, // for He is ho - ly, grant - ing the world — great mer - cy!"

Sticheron 3

Pre - fig - ur - ing Your Cross, O Christ, Ja - cob the Patriarch, when he gave the blessing to his de-scend - ants, laid his hands cross-wise up - on their heads. And to - day as we exalt Your Cross, O Sav - ior, we cry: "Give vic - tory to Your Ortho - dox peo - ple, // as You once gave it to Con - stan - tine!"

Tone 2
Sticheron 4

Di-vine— treas-ure hid - den in the earth, the Cross of the Giver of Life appeared in the heavens to the god - ly king, and its in - scrip - tion spiritually signified his victory o - ver the en - e - my. Re - joic - ing with faith and love, and in - spired— by God he made haste to raise on high the Cross which he had seen, and with great zeal he brought it forth from the bos - om of the earth // for the de - liv' - rance of the world and the sal - va - tion of our souls.

Sticheron 5

When the Pa - triarch Jacob crossed his hands while [blessing his children,] bless-ing his chil - dren, he foreshadowed the might - y sym - bol of Your Cross. Hav - ing this as our unshakable safe - guard, we drive out with al - mighty strength the ranks of de - mons; and, casting down by it the arrogance of *Be - li - al we put to flight the all-destroying power of hateful Am - a - lek. Now as the Cross is lift - ed on high, we the faithful piously offer it to Your goodness for the cleans - ing of our sins, cry - ing out in a loud voice: "Have mer - cy, O Lord, made flesh of the Vir - gin; // take pit - y, O Good One, on the works that You have fash - ioned in Your wis - dom."

Sticheron 6

O three - branched Cross of Christ, you are my strong pro - tec - tion. Sanc - ti - fy me by your might, // that I may ven - er - ate and glo - ri - fy you in faith and love!

Tone 4

Sticheron 7

Let us proclaim today a fes - ti - val of song, and with radiant faces and with our tongues let us cry a - loud:

"O Christ, You have accepted condem - na - tion for us, and, be - ing spat up - on, and scourged, You were robed in purple and as - cend - ed the Cross. Seeing You, the sun and the moon hid their light, the earth quaked in fear, and the veil of the Tem - ple was torn in two.

Grant us Your precious Cross as our guardian and pro - tec - tor, driv-ing de - mons a - way, that we may all em-brace it and cry — out: 'Save us, O Cross, by your might! Sanctify us by your radiance, O pre - cious Cross, and strengthen us through your Exal - ta - tion; // for you have been given to us as the light — and sal - va - tion of our souls!"

Sticheron 8

You, O Cross, as a sign radiant with light, formed — of stars, have pro-phetically revealed a trophy of victory to the god - ly king;

and when his moth - er Hel - en found you, she displayed you in the sight of all the world. And we the choirs of faithful shout aloud, as we ex - alt you to - day: "Enlighten us with your brightness, O life - bear - ing Cross! Sanctify us by your might, O all - ven' - ra - ble Cross, and strengthen us through your Ex - al - ta - tion, // when you are lifted on high before the ranks of our en - e - mies!"
